“Look who’s flying into town...”

In February 2018, Greece Athena Middle School Theater will continue to bring a large-scale production with a cast and crew of over 200 middle school students. This production will feature a unique blend of singing, spectacular sets, dynamic choreography and aerial affects. Since 1996, we have raised more than $400,000 for local children’s charities, including Autism Up, Artists Unlimited, Gilda’s Club of Rochester, and many others. We will be bringing to life beloved characters such as Peter Pan, Captain Hook, and Tinkerbell.

Tickets will be available at Wegmans and on Showtix’s website, www.showtix4u.com starting December 18th.

$12 a ticket
